

A Piece of Cakeable

Fall 2019

Welcome to the 1st edition of A Piece of Cakeable! The mission of our non-profit bakery is to increase the employability of people who have disabilities by equipping them with job preparation and baking skills.

We're seeking the right location for our training and baking activities, developing our business plan, and creating a job skills curriculum. At times, progress seems terribly slow and our limitations feel overwhelming. But we trust in God's timing and envision a community which reflects His heart to bring everyone in.

Know someone who wants to participate in classes? Please share our email address and encourage your friend to contact us for info about one-on-one classes in our home kitchen and updates about our job skills program.

"Together you are the body of Christ.
Each one of you is part of His body."
- 1 Corinthians 12:27

*Did you know? -
North Carolina ranks 37th among states in employing people with disabilities. Out of 150 US cities, Charlotte ranks #83 in economic opportunity for people with disabilities.*

YOU can be a piece of Cakeable! We're looking for potential board members, legal and small business advisors, prayer partners, and volunteers. Cakeable will be capable of fulfilling our mission when you add your experiences, knowledge, and love for people. Please let us know if and how you'd like to serve. Thanks!

What's Current at Cakeable ....

- We're waiting for approval of our 501(c)(3) application and participating in a collaborative group at Carmel Baptist Church for new non-profits.
- Cakeable serves teens and adults at GiGi's Playhouse, a therapeutic center for individuals who have Down syndrome. Members of the GiGi's career development program are preparing and delivering cupcakes and pumpkin muffins during October, Down Syndrome Awareness Month.

- Cakeable is participating in the Buddy Walk to benefit the Down Syndrome Association of Greater Charlotte. This will be a wonderful opportunity to support our local partners and introduce Cakeable to many new friends. Over 2,000 people who are enthusiastic about disability inclusion are expected to participate!

Join our Cakeable Charlotte team at the 2019 Buddy Walk on October 19 at UNCC. We'll provide a cookie decorating activity for all participants and we need extra hands! We're also grateful for any contributions to our activity:

- Golden Oreos (generic brands are fine)
- Candy Corn
- Rolos
- Mini chocolate cupcakes

Please let us know if you'd like to join us at the event or donate items.
