

A Piece of Cakeable

July 2020

Thanks, friends, for asking about Cakeable. At the beginning of 2020, we planned to pause "a bit" during the spring/graduation season to prioritize time with our only child, Caroline. We just didn't expect that the "pause" would be this weird or this long!

During the first week of March 2020, we reached an agreement with a local church to rent their kitchen, but everyone knows how the rest of March played out. So, like you, we've been waiting and praying through the uncertainties. We are currently exploring possibilities to resume in the fall, perhaps in a rented kitchen space. We're also asking potential students about their comfort level with participation, either in our home or in the community.

We trust God has a plan and will make a way for Cakeable to support and equip our neighbors during these challenging times. Would appreciate your prayers for wisdom in moving forward - thanks!

Know someone who wants a piece of Cakeable? Please share our email address and encourage your friend to contact us for updates about baking classes and the job skills program.

Cakeable Charlotte is a non-profit bakery with a mission to increase the employability of people who have disabilities by equipping them with job preparation and baking skills.

Please say hello!

renee@cakeablecharlotte.com

www.cakeablecharlotte.com

@cakeable_charlotte on Instagram

@cakeablecharlotte on Facebook

We received status from the IRS as a 501 (c)(3) charitable organization! Our website offers an opportunity via PayPal to donate to our baking classes. Find us at www.cakeablecharlotte.com.